Greetings to you from Cedarville University!

It is my privilege to recommend Chad Brennan and Renew Partnerships for your consideration!

Chad's involvement with our campus has challenged us to think broadly and deeply about the part we play in breaking down ethnic barriers and helping to build Biblical, multi-ethnic community. Over the past several years, Chad has provided valuable input, resources and hands-on service opportunities for Cedarville students. It is obvious that Chad has a heart for these important issues. He is a hard worker, humble servant, friend, encourager, and innovator. He is making a difference!

I hope you will take advantage of the resources, experience and insights available through the people and Christ-centered programs of ReNew Partnerships.

Serving God by serving others,
